

The Daily Courant.

Friday, March 26. 1714.

From the News-Letter printed at Boston in New-England, dated January 11.

By his Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq; Captain-General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Provinces of the Massachusetts-Bay, and New-Hampshire in New-England.

A Proclamation for a general Fast.

ON Consideration of the present Distresses of Her Majesty's good Subjects of these Provinces, by reason of the general Sickness prevailing in the several Parts, and the great Scarcity of Corn and Grain of all sorts, whereby many Families, of the Poor especially, are reduced to extream Want and Straits, and suffer greatly under the same, and the Severities of the Winter Season.

I have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Council, to Order and Appoint, That Thursday the 14th of January next, be observed for Fasting with Prayer throughout this Province: Forbidding all Servile Labour on the said Day; and exhorting both Ministers and People in their Publick Assemblies thereon, with Penitential Confession of Sin, to acknowledge the Holiness and Righteousness of God in His Judgments upon us for the same, humbly to implore Divine Grace, by hearty fervent Supplications, for the Pardon of our Sins, and the Averting of His Judgments; for all Divine Blessings upon Her Majesty, our most gracious Sovereign Lady the Queen, Her Person and Government, our Nation, this Province, and the Church of God throughout the World.

Recommending it also to the Ministers of the several Towns and Congregations upon the said Day, to ask the Charitable Contribution of their respective Auditories for the Relief of their distressed Brethren and Neighbours, to be distributed accordingly.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Boston the 21d Day of December, Anno Dom. 1713. in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Anne, by the Grace of God of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

By Order of His Excellency with Advice of the Council.

J. DUDLEY.

From the News-Letter printed at Boston in New-England, dated January 18.

Burlington in New-Jersey, December 8. 1713.

The Speech of his Excellency Robert Hunter, Esq; Captain General and Governour in Chief of the Provinces of New-Jersey, New-York, &c. to the General Assembly of New-Jersey, the 8th of December 1713.

Gentlemen,

I Am heartily glad to meet you here after so long Absence, and I believe you are not sorry to meet me in so good Company.

The tender regard that her Majesty has had to your Peace, (in particular at a time when the General One, with which she has blest the World, call'd for all her pious Endeavours) cannot fail of meeting with such Returns as are due from the most grateful People to the best and most indulgent of Princes.

Neither can I be perswaded, but by a Proof (which God avert) that the impotent Efforts of such as have been by her Order, and at your Desire, removed from Places of Trust, for disturbing your Peace, should now, that they are removed, have the Power to destroy it, by breaking that mutual Confidence or disturbing that Harmony that is, I hope, at present established between the several Parts of the Legislature.

Full of that Confidence I recommend to your immediate Care, the past Arrear and future Support of her Majesty's Government, the Discouragement of growing Vice and avowed Immorality, the Improvement of Trade, Encouragement of planting and peopling the Province, which cannot be better effected than by a Law to affirm and ascertain the respective Properties, if you think it practicable, the Re-consideration of several good Bills which miscarried the last time we met here, by the unreasonable Opposition of a Party; and in a word, whatsoever may be thought necessary for her Majesty's Honour and Interest, and their inseparable Concomitants, the publick Peace and common Good of all her Subjects: To all which I promise you my hearty Assent, so far as I am empowered, and for these purposes I think my self sufficiently empowered.

The Gentlemen of the Council, as now constituted, having no Views or Interests differing from yours, if you would agree to meet them, or a Number of them, in frequent and amicable Conferences upon all Matters under Deliberation, it would not only save much time, but effectually disappoint all the Contrivances of your Enemies, who, in Return for their being at present no Counsellors, have ridiculously endeavoured to persuade some, that you are no Assembly.

RO. HUNTER.

To his Excellency Robert Hunter, Esq; Captain-General and Governour in Chief of the Provinces of New-Jersey, New-York, &c. The humble Address of the House of Representatives of the Province of New-Jersey.

May it please your Excellency,

IT is with the greatest Satisfaction we meet your Excellency in such good Company now, and hope, that (since those ill-minded Persons, who have for many Years obstructed the Peace and Welfare of the Country are removed), we shall be favoured with it oftener.

Our most Gracious Sovereign's tender Regard for us, the meanest of her Subjects, (and at a time when the General Peace, which by God's Blessing, she has so gloriously restored, required the greatest Application) lays us under the greatest Obligations to the best of Queens.

We hope our Actions will convince the World, that we are not ungrateful, but intirely devoted to her Service and that of our Countries, which are inseparable.

We doubt not but to disappoint all the malicious Efforts of those common Disturbers which her Majesty has removed from her Council; for which we lie under the greatest Obligations to your Excellency.

What your Excellency has recommended to us is under Consideration, and doubt not but to dispatch it to your Satisfaction.

Tipping's pleasant Liquor for the Stone, Gravel, and Cholick, is faithfully prepared, according to Dr. Tipping's Receipt, by Mathew Clark, Apothecary, in Little-Britain, near West-Smithfield, London, and sold there, and at Will's Coffee-house near the Royal-Exchange, and at Tom's Coffee-house in Devereux-Court. This famous Liquor was invented by Dr. Tipping, a Collegiate Physician, and not by a Lion-draught, and the Receipt left in his own Hand-writing at his Death to Mr. Wm Tipping his Grandson, who gave it to Mathew Clark aforesaid. And to satisfy the World of the Truth hereof, and as an Antidote against the Venom of a malicious Slanderer, the said Mr. Wm Tipping made Affidavit of the Truth of this Matter once before Sir Richard Levett, and since that before Sir Wm Withers in his Mayoralty. N.B. Any Person that is willing to dispose of this most excellent Liquor, by applying themselves to Mr. Clark above-mentioned, shall have better Encouragement than ever before.

Whereas there are several Persons in and about the City of London, that pretend to make and sell the late Dr. Salmon's Medicines, and confidently affirm them to be the right, these are therefore to certify the Publick that they are all Counterfeits; there being none rightly prepared or made by any besides his Widow, the only having his own Receipts, and made them for him above Twenty Years before he died, and still continues to make and dispose of them, as he has done ever since her Husband's decease, over against his late Dwelling-House, at Black-Fryars-Stairs.
